

Teak Colour Guard

An annual application of Teak Colour Guard will maintain the natural colour of teak by using UV inhibitors to slow the natural greying process caused by sunlight together with pigments that help to maintain its natural colour.

This treatment must be applied before the Teak is allowed to weather or after cleaning.

Product Code: 4TCG